Short presentation of your organisation (key activities, experience)	Amandola is a small town of 3,629 inhabitants located in the province of Fermo, in the Marche Region, central Italy on the Adriatic Coast. Situated on the left bank of the river Tenna, on the eastern side of the Sibillini National Park, Amandola is one of the most important centers for the historical and cultural resources, for environmental values. The variety of the landscapes that characterize this area, is one of the elements that make it unique; the rugged and wild ridges of the mountain ridge, valleys drawn by the force of the rivers, the small villages cleverly set, the historical center which combines in a single breath, past and present. Everything recalls the millennial relationship between man and nature, that have known how to adapt to each other, drawing a painting in two admirable beauty hands. Rightly considered the "gateway to the east" of access to the Sibillini National Park, the Anthropological Museum, it offers the opportunity to learn all the aspects that make up the environment, then having the opportunity to find and observe them in the territory. Loving it, to live in nature and culture, where recover the rhythm of time. Unfortunately this "diamond" of the Sibillini Mountains has been hardly hit by the earthquakes of August and October 2016, and

	only thanks to the solidarity and help of volunteers, Amandola exceeded and it is still struggling to emerge from a difficult moment both for its inhabitants and for the territory and its economy. For this reason we want to share with different European partners our experience of solidarity, to develop European citizenship in times of crisis through concrete and interactive training, during a week of full immersion, in the territory of Amandola where all partners can teach to young participants how: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Manage and collaborate with different corps of volunteers</li> <li>- To give confort to the population</li> <li>- Rescue art masterpieces</li> </ul>
