Project

Title	Volunteering and Civil Protection
Field(s)	From the municipality, our aim is to build a Europe based on solidarity from initiatives of a civil society (voluntary work, etc.); correcting social imbalances through cooperation and commitment of civil society; development of the European peoples to combat marginalization and inequality from different groups.

Description	The Distinguished City Council of Palma del Río aims to create a place for dialogue and exchange of best practices to encourage and promote the initiative of civil society, in cooperation with local authorities, as a central solution in resolving conflicts, inequalities, while proposing solutions to develop opportunities and alternatives that converge to create a more just, egalitarian and integrated society especially those vulnerable groups or in a situation or at risk of social exclusion. In the same vein, our intention is to share Civil Protection experiences in the commitment to develop all kinds of activities, especially civil society initiatives in a democratic, tolerant, integrated and committed coexistence. Our proposal in this network is to organize meetings, seminars, conferences, workshops, etc.
